A NOBLE WOMAN.

She was born a lady, as the world says. She had a loving father who spared no means to give her the brilliant accomplishments of station. She had a troop of friends—gay flatterers hovered around her beauty and wealth. One she married and rich and imposing was the wedding. But the marriage life ran out of course. The husband, after spending the fortune of his wife in reckless living and wild cat speculations, and involving the father in disaster, and fretting her life away by inches, eloped one day and left the young mother of his child alone, with debt and disgrace, and her own sad heart; alone, to work for her living as best she could, or starve if work she could not.

The deserted woman pined away at first and shed bitter tears, and became faded and broken. One day she awoke to the stern fact that she must either work or starve. She could not go back to her father, and pride kept her from former friends. What did she do? In vain she told over her list of talents. Every chance seemed closed to her. By sewing she could not earn enough to live and pay the rent. Her music she had neglected after marriage. The doting father had given her ornament and froth in her education—nothing to which she could put her hands for support.

At this time a man said to her, "come down to my farm this season and work in the strawberry field." Nothing but dire necessity made her go. The man was kind to her and the work light. All the season she worked for him and in the open air, and with the plain, regular living her heart came back to her. She became healthful and hopeful, as in former days. Here was her chance. When the season was over she said to her employer:

"Take me into your business! I have shown what I can do. My past life I drop. I will become a business woman!" He thought she was jesting at first; but she was in earnest. Her offer was accepted.

For three years this woman acted as clerk and manager for one of the large produce raisers of New Jersey. The details of the business came into her hands. No better salesmen than she—no better executive. At last she bought an interest, afterwards half the business. It seems that her whole life had been led by somebody else; from being a nervous, timid woman, she grew into a sound, brisk worker. She made a good home in Jersey for her child and aged father; and to day there is no more popular dealer in the market and no more capable woman in New Jersey, and no finer appearing lady anywhere than this self-made woman, who can daily be seen managing her extensive business in Washington Market, associating with marketmen, but never forgetting, nor do they, that she is a lady, and commanding all the respect due to her sex.

ADVICE TO YOUNG MINISTERS.

A minister somewhat in years, a while ago sent the following quaint epistle to a young brother in the ministry. It may do for others:

Dear Brother:—I sometimes write to young men because they are strong. Remember—

1. That human happiness, like Hebrew verbs have no present tense.

2. That human friendship, like glass, is easily broken; but not easily mended.

3. When you know not what to do, never do you know not what.

4. Never covet high places, where 'tis difficult to stand and dangerous to fall. We never find the Savior on the pinnacles of the temple but once. What company had he there?

5. Be no respector of great personages as such. Remember the figure 9, though the highest number, owes its consequence not to its head, but to its curved appendage; without that it would be 0.

6. Desire no rapid growth. When the clock has struck 12 it does not strike 13 next. The full moon grows no larger.

7. Be not over hasty to combat public opinion without pressing reason. He that spits against the wind spits in his own face.

8 Never scare off a fly with a club when a feather will do as well. And remember, you can kill more flies with a gill of molasses than with a gallon of vinegar.

9. Avoid debt. He that pays down will not be called upon to pay up.

10. Ministers must not only eat their bread by the sweat of their brow, but by the sweat of their brains.

11. Let not your sermons be like a serpent, smallest at the last end, but like a scorpion, whose sting is in its tail.

12. Have special care of those members who were born in a storm, as they are prone to want a storm to live in.

13. Never forget that a minister's work is to break hard hearts, and to mend broken ones.

The senior editor of the New York Observer, writing of his recent visit to Washington, says: "I saw nothing new except Vinnie Ream's statue of President Lincoln. The buttons of the coat are well done."

FIRST USE OF STEAM.

It is still a debatable matter who was the first that suggested the use of steam as a motive power. All that is known as to this point may be comprised in a few sentences. Hero, a man of considerable attainments, who flourished in Alexandria, in the reign of Potelemy Philadelphus, stands preeminent as first who reduced the power of steam to a mechanical contrivance of which he has given a description in one of his works. Still there is no account of Hero's application of steam to arts and manufactures, nor indeed, any account of its powers being applied to useful purposes, until the fifteenth century, Solomon de Caus, a French engineer, proposed to apply the elastic power of steam to raise water, and suggested a simple apparatus for the purpose, consisting of a boiler fixed over a fire, having a stand pipe fixed in the top of the boiler; its lower extremity carried some height above the top of the boiler. The elastic force of steam being raised by the fire, passed upon the surface of the water, and caused a jet to descend from the upper, extremity of the pipe. The same principle is described in a work published by the Marquis of Worcester in 1868, entitled A Century of the Names and Scantlings of Inventions, in which he describes a method of employing the power of steam to raise water. Scotland seems to be entitled, however, to having first reduced steam power to navigation in a practical manner, although France and England both claim the merit of having made the suggestion that would naturally lead to the result mentioned.

NO TUNING DURING SERVICE.

The following anecdote, from the New Hampshire Telegraph, is too good to be lost.

Many years ago there was in the eastern part of Massachusetts, a worthy D. D., and although he was an eminently benevolent man and a good Christian, yet it must be confessed that he loved a joke much better than even the most inveterate jokers. It was before church organs were much in use; it so happened that the choir of the church had just purchased a double bass viol. Not far from the church was a large pasture, and in it a huge town bull. One hot Sabbath in the summer he got out of the pasture, and came bellowing up the street. About the church there was plenty of untrodden and good grass, and Mr. Bull stopped to try the quality; perchance the location had improved its flavor; at any rate the doctor was in the midst of his sermon when—.

'Boo woo-woo," went the bull.

The doctor paused, looked up at the singing seats, and with a grave face said:

'I would thank the musicians not to tune their instruments during service time, it annoys me very much.'

The people started, and the minister went on.

'Boo-woo woo,' went the bull again, as he passed another green spot.

The parson paused again, and again addressed the choir:

'I really wish the singers would not tune their instruments while I am preaching, as I remarked before, for it annoys me very much.'

The people tittered for they well knew what the real state was.

The minister then went on again with his discourse, but he had not proceeded far when another 'Boo woo-woo,' came from Mr. Bull.

The parson paused once more, and again exclaimed:

'I have twice already requested the musicians in the gallery not to tune their instruments during the time I am preaching. I now particularly request Mr. Lafevor that he will not tune his double bass viol while I am preaching.

PROGRESS OF THE NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD.

The energy with which the building of this great thoroughfare is being pushed forward is an added guaranty of its early completion and its wise management. We learn from the financial agents of the road, Messrs Jay Cooke & Co., that, at the present date, the grading is nearly finished for 260 miles, from lake Superior, through central Minnesota, to the eastern border of Dakota; trains are running over 130 miles of completed track; the Mississippi river is bridged at Brainard and once more joined to the lakes by rail, and track laying is rapidly progressing westward. By September next trains will run to the Red river, and the grading will probably be far advanced toward the Great Bend of the Missouri river in Central Dakota.

In the meantime work has been commenced the present season on the Pacific coast; a large force of men is already employed in the valley of the Columbia river, in Washington territory, and hereafter the work of construction will be pushed both eastward and westward toward the center with rapidity as the best interests of the road may justify.

Including its purchase of the St. Paul and Pacific Road, the Northern Pacific Railroad Company has 413 miles of road now in operation; and before the close of the present season the length of finished track will be at least 560 miles. The new highway to the Pacific is being constructed at the lowest possible cost compatable with first class work.

IF I ONLY HAD CAPITAL.

"If I only had capital," we heard a young man say a few days ago as he puffed away at a ten cent cigar, "I would do something."

"If I only had capital," said another, as he walked away from a dram shop where he had just paid ten cents for a drink, "I would go into business."

The same remark might have been heard from a young man loafing on the street corner. Young man with the cigar, you are smoking away your capital. You from the dram shop are drinking yours and destroying your body at the same time—and you on the street corners are wasting yours in idleness and forming bad habits. Dimes make dollars. Time is money. Don't wait for a fortune to begin with. If you had ten thousand dollars a year and spent it all, you would be poor still. Our men of power and influence did not start with fortunes. You, too, can make your mark if you will. But you must stop spending your money for what you don't need, and squandering your time in idleness.

OUR DRAGON.

The late lamented William Makepeace Thackeray had hanging in his bedroom a cut executed by one of the masters, representing St. George in conflict with a dragon. He explained to an American friend, not long prior to his decease, that he valued the cut not only for its artistic skill, but because it represented an important fact in every man's life. "Each one" he said, "has a dragon to fight, I have two, Indolence and Luxury."

Mr. Thackeray has certainly expressed, very beautifully and forcibly, what is true in every earnest man's experience. If he has no force of character—if he aim only to vegetate and die—if he be a mere oyster, we do not know that he will never fight his dragon. But each earnest man has found out before to day, that he has a dragon to fight, and that the conflict is not a playful skirmish at long range, but a battle—at times a fierce life and death struggle.

Some strong passion is the great demon-eyed monster which haunts the paths of many men; and alas! some of the most gifted make a poor fight and are soon conquered. Melancholy—a taint of insanity, a monomania—a dull eyed, mopish, slow-tongued, apparently feeble, but wonderfully strong dragon, makes battle with many, and counts numerous victims.

Debt is a dragon—yes it is. Poor Dick Swiviller can testify to that; and who is in more danger than a sensitive and true man who is obliged to dodge the blows of this dragon daily, during all the better part of his life? If he maintains his manhood and dies victor, he deserves a monument costlier than Napoleon's. One of the best ministers we ever knew, was haunted for twenty years with a temptation to commit suicide. That was his dragon Human beings may become dragons to their fellows. The great grief and temptation of Mrs. Heman's life, was an unkind and unsympathizing husband. The same may be said of madame Guyon; and John Wesley had a female dragon in the person of Mrs. Wesley.

But we need not go further in detail. Each one has his dragon, and should make a manly fight. Grace provides special aid to all who seek it in faith; and few, if any, conquer without it.

Chronic Dyspepsia can't be cured, say the Doctors. Heaven forgive them! Can't be cured! Why Hoofland's German Bitters and Hoofland's Tonic have cured five thousand dyspeptics within the last year! No man or woman affected with indisposition ever tried these matchless vegetable stomachics without experiencing immediate relief. In acute Dyspepsia, the bitters (which contain no alcohol) remove every symtom, and effect a perfect and permanent renovation of the digestive functions in a week or ten days, and in chronic cases, the Tonic (which is also a diffusive stimulant) acts with almost electric rapidity upon the torpid stomach, restoring at once its gastric vigor, and the appetite of the invalid. Depot, No. 631 Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa. Sold by all druggists.

A profuse and many times excessively offensive discharges from the nose, with stopping up of the nose at times, impairment of the sense of smell and taste, watering or weak eyes, impaired hearing, irregular appetite, occasional nausea, pressure and pain over the eyes, and at times in the back of the head, occasional chilly sensations, cold feet, and a feeling of lassitude and debility are symtoms which are common to Catarrh, yet all of them are not present in every case. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures Catarrh in its worst forms and stages. It is pleasant to use, and contains no poisonous or caustic drugs. Sent by mail on receipt of sixty cents. Address R. V. Pierce, 133 Seneca street, Buffalo N. Y. Sold by danggists.

The great dead novelist, Dumas, never read anything he had written, declaring if he had done so he should have been certain to cast the manuscript into the fire.

A HINT TO MEDDLERS.

A little white rose bloomed all by herself in a nook in the hedge.

"Ah! cried the wind in passing by, "what a pity you should be suffocated there! I will blow a hole in the hedge, and the breeze shall find you through it."

"I pray, sir, you will leave me as I am, I breathe well enough," said the rose.

"I know better," said the wind, and rent the hedge as he pass on, and the boys rushed through, and made her tremble with fear.

"You are not well placed there, I will give you a better berth that that," he said, as he came by again.

"I beg you leave me as I am, I like my place well enough, if it were not for the gap you made," said the rose.

But the wind would not listen; he broke her stem, and she fell to the ground.

"Oh, you musn't lie there!" he cried; "I will carry you to the spot that will suit you exactly."

"Nay, I entreat you to let me lie and fade in this pleasant grass," said the rose, beseechingly; but he caught her up, and whirled her on a few yards, when her petals were scattered and her leafless stem was cast on the hedge.

"How is this?" exclaimed the wind.

"How is it? this is how it is," replied the hedge; "there are some folks that are never satisfied but when they are meddling in other folks affairs; they think nobody can be happy except in their way; and you are one of them, and this bare stem is a specimen of your work."

THE CIRCUS BUSINESS.

There are in the United States traveling through the Summer season, no less than forty-four different circus companies. The fitting out of a first-class circus, exclusive of any menagerie, costs fully $100,000. The expenses of a new tent, with poles, ropes, seats, lamps, banners, and entrance curtains, is little short of $5,000. The baggage wagons range in value from $200 to $700. The extra horses, needed for them, are from $500 to $800 a pair, and the great gilded show chariot for musicians, $5,000. The entire livery dresses and horse paraphernalia. The ring carpet for tumbling, trick and bareback horses, trick ponies and mules. The salaries paid to performers, six to ten acrobats, six riders, and half a dozen super-numeraries, usually form the complement of a circus, in addition to the stars. The daily expenses of such an establishment is about $600. Circuses do not travel during the winter in the Northern States. They either lay up until the spring, and start upon their tours from the 1st of April to the 10th of May, or they travel in the Southern States, beginning their marches from the 1st to the 10th of November. About ten of the forty four proprietors are wealthy, but the great majority of them are in the hands of the sheriffs from two to twenty times during each season. The weather is their greatest enemy, a rainy day setting them back badly.

THE GENEROUS BOY.

One day a gentleman saw two boys going through one of the streets of New York. They were barefooted. Their clothes ragged and dirty, and tied together with pieces of string. One of the boys was perfectly happy over a half withered bunch of flowers which he had just picked up in the street. "I say Billy," said he to his companion, "wasn't somebody real good to drop these 'ere posies just where I could find them? And they are so pooty and nice! Look sharp, Billy; mebby you'll find something bimeby." Presently the gentleman heard his merry voice again, saying "O jolly, Billy! if here ain't most half a peach! and hain't much dirty neither. 'Cause you hain't found nothin', you may take the first bite." Bill was just going to take a very little taste of it, when his companion said, "Bite bigger, Billy; mebby we'll find another 'fore long." What a noble heart that poor boy had in spite of his rags and dirt! There was nobody for him to be kind to but his companion in poverty—the poor ragged boy at his side. But he was showing him all the kindness in his power when he said, "Bite bigger, Billy." There was nothing greedy or selfish about that boy.

Who can help admiring the noble heart of that poor boy! I would rather have that boy's kind and generous spirit than to have a monarch's crown upon my head without it. "Bite bigger, Billy!" Think of those words if you are ever tempted to be unkind or selfish to your companion.—Missionary Visitor.

Professor Listing, of Gottengen, in an article on certain optical phenomena, explains why birds are so often found dead under telegraph wires. It is not killed by a passing current while perched upon the wires, but because their eyes, being in the same horozontal plane, they cannot calculate their distance from the wires, and are consequently killed by flying against them. It is to this same fact—the horozontal plane—that the difficulty of distinguishing the edges of the steps occurs while going down stairs, and of clearly calculating the distance from one to another.

VITALITY OF THE HUMAN SPECIES.

The first six months of a child's life is too uncertain to base any calculation upon. On the other hand, after the expiration of the first year, the chances are even that the child will live to the age of thirty three; between ten and fifteen years of age life is most secure and the probabilities are even that it will live forty three years longer.

Of a million of people, 573,460 will be found to be between the ages of fifteen and sixty; and as nearly one half of them are men, this number of inhabitants could on an emergency, furnish 250,000 men capable of bearing arms, even if an allowance be made for the sick and lame, who may be supposed to be among that number. This will explain the capacity of such countries as the United States and Prussia, where the volunteer and militia system is so fully developed, for putting such vast numbers of fighting men in the field when the necessity has required them.

It has been proved that the number of males that are born exceeds that of the females; this is a striking instance of the wisdom of Providence, which has thus provided for the preservation of the human race. Men, in consequence of the active life for which they are naturally destined by their strength and courage, are exposed to more dangers than the female sex; war, long sea voyages, employments laborious or prejudical to health, and dissipation, carry off great numbers of males: and it thence results, that if the number of the latter born did not exceed that of the females, the males would rapidly decrease and soon become extinct.

The following facts in regard to temperance and intemperance are the recorded results of the examinations of insurance companies, but they will serve also as a brief and temperance lecture:

In a given number of risks, 10 temperate persons die, between the age of fifteen and twenty, inclusive, and 18 intemperate—the risk being on an inebriate more than 500 per cent, greater than on a temperate person. So ten temperate persons die, between 31 and 40, inclusive, and about 40 intemperate, or the risk is increased some 400 per cent. Hence insurance companies avoid risks on inebriates, as they would on consumptive or those suffering from Bright's disease, etc. A temperate person's chance of living is at 20, 44, 2 years. An intemperate person's chance of living is, at 20, 15, 6 years; at 30, 13, 8 years; at 40, 11, 6 years. Deaths from inebriety are not reported on account of opprobrium which attaches to deaths from that disease. The certificates of deaths from diseases of the brain, liver and kidneys, organs specifically affected by alcohol, are as follows: Diseases of brain, 689; liver, 110; kidneys, 562—making in all 1,360. The Registrar states it as his opinion that at least 20 per cent, or 273 of these cases, were the immediate result of intemperance. This number, added to the number of those reported as dying from delirium tremens, gives 551 deaths from alcohol of one to 1,815 inhabitants.

Lamartine tells a story that exquisitely illustrates a mother's love: In some spring freshet, a river widely washed its shores and rent away a bough whereon a bird had built a cottage for her summer home. Down the white and whirling stream drifted the green branch, its wicker cup of unfledged song, and fluttering beside it as it went, the mother bird. Unheeding the roaring river, on she went, her cries of agony and fear piercing the pauses in the storm. How like the love of the old fashioned mother, who followed the dove she had plucked from her heart all over the world.—Swept away by passion that child might be, it mattered not, though he was bearing away with him the fragrance of the shattered roof-tree, yet that mother was with him, a Ruth through all his life, and a Rachel at his death.

I am more and more impressed with the moral qualities of vegetables, and contemplate forming a science which shall rank with comparative anatomy and comparative phisilology—the science of comparative vegetable morality. We live in an age of protoplasm. And, if life-matter is essentially the same in all forms of life, I purpose to begin early, and ascertain the nature of the plants for which I am responsible. I will not associate with any vegetable which is disreputable, or has not some quality that can contribute to my moral growth.—WARREN: My Summer in a Garden.

The ordeal of betrayed confidence is a cruel one for a sensitive mind; but if it be the only means of coming to a wholesome estimate of human nature, happy are they who pass through it early, ere the heart is deadened by age to the abounding compensations of life, and while the truth it teaches can be turned to the advantage of those who, in a new generation, may reap the benefit of what has been learned by the last.

Massillon, Wednesday, April 12.

The murderous kuklux in the south are still at their outrages. Daily reports are given of their bloody work. Congress seems to hesitate and falter as to its duty in giving protection to those unable to shield themselves from harm. Gen Butler puts the case strong enough. He says the democrats in congress pretend to believe there is nothing wrong going on at the south, yet they fear to investigate matters. And he further tells them that if they want the votes of that section of the country to help elect the next president, they must do something to protect the people there. One of the southern governors has called upon the president for protection, and the latter is doing all he can to carry out this request. As long as anarchy rules there the south cannot prosper. True to their instincts these kuklux are death on school teachers, for they seem to know that intelligence is fatal to their dark and infamous works.

In almost all of our exchanges in this part of the state of last week's date, returns of local elections were given, excepting in the New Lisbon papers. They may have something of that sort, but we are not able to find it. They certainly might have achieved the feat of giving the town and township elections in which they are located.

In common we all feel like rejoicing over the fact that our city authorities are taking efficient measures to light our streets with gas. It is a most commendable movement in the right direction, and will be highly appreciated by everybody.

PROF. ATWATER'S LECTURE.

MR. EDITOR:—We had the pleasure, last Friday evening, of listening to what was, in many respects, an able and interesting lecture, by Prof. Atwater, at the Disciple church, on the question of the Prohibition of the Liquor Traffic. We regret that the brief notice prevented a larger audience—we also regretted that the professor should have seen fit, very unnecessarily, it seems to us, to offer an apology for, and almost a defense of, the habit of using tobacco. Not that he intended to advocate its use, for we presume he did not; yet, from a mistaken idea of rendering his subject more clear, he made the almost fatal concession, and erroneous assertion, that the habitual use of tobacco was nobody's business but the one who indulged in it, and did not necessarily infringe upon the rights of others; thus materially weakening, if not entirely destroying, the force of his argument against the liquor traffic, as we shall endeavor to show.

The professor's argument was, briefly, as follows:—First, That the liquor trade is a nuisance, and that we have the same right, by legislation, to abolish this as any other nuisance. 2d, That it imposes unnecessary tax on the community for the support of paupers and the punishment of crime, and the maintanance of lunatics and idiots. 3d, That it endangers the security of life and property. 4th, That it robs families of the comforts and necessaries of life, and children of a suitable education and opportunity for high moral and intellectual development. 5th, That it tramples upon the rights of posterity, by blasting the intellectual and physical prospects of the babe in embryo, thus bringing into existence a numerous class of sickly children, idiots, and monstrosities, to be maintained by charity, or at public expense.

This whole argument, powerful and overwhelming, as it is, when not crippled by damaging concessions, may be summed up in a nut shell, thus:—The liquor trade ought to be suppressed because it is an infringement on the rights of the community. This argument proceeds upon the admitted legal right of taking away the pecuniary advantage of the few whenever it imperils the rights, the peace, and the safety of the many. The professor clearly substantiated this point by citing numerous instances of the exercise of this power. City authorities often order the removal of slaughter houses, dissecting rooms, chemical laboratories, oil refineries, powder mills and magazines, etc., beyond the corporation limits, whenever, in their judgment, the health, lives or property of the inhabitants are endangered by fire, or explosion, or the escape of noxious gases, or poisonous effluvia proceeding from such establishments. This is done without any regard to the expense or sacrifice it may occasion the proprietors, and without remuneration therefor. The sale of diseased or tainted meat is not only prohibited by law, but seized and confiscated by the authorities when found. In cholera times, the sale of certain vegetables is prohibited by law, no matter what loss or damage it may cause the dealer or producer. The sale of obscene books and pictures is prohibited by law, on account of their dangerous and immoral tendency: so, likewise, the manufacture and sale of burglars and counterfeiters' tools and implements, are prohibited. These, and many other cases which might be cited, prove conclusively the acknowledged right of prohibiting By law, the manufacture and sale of whatever article may be deemed injurious to the public good. Now, as the sale of intoxicating drinks, is undeniably prejudicial to the public interest, or in other words, infringes the rights of others, it is clearly proven that the people have a right to prohibit their sale whenever they shall will to do so.

It was painful to see a man of the ability and reputed logical powers of the professor, admitting away, in advance, and breaking the force of his own argument by an unnecessary, uncalled for concession in favor of tobacco. We repeat, it was painful to hear a college professor and minister of the gospel, declare before a public audience, that the use of tobacco infringed on nobody's rights, and was nobody's business but the one who used it; and that he would denounce and vote against any law for its suppression—all this at the very moment when he was engaged in an argument for the suppression of the liquor traffic. Charity would lead us to suppose that he spoke without reflection, or else he could not have made such an unwarranted declaration. Does he not know that nearly every charge which he prefers against the liquor traffic, and on which he bases his argument, can also be brought against the sale and use of tobacco, the difference being only in degree and not in principle? Does he not know that the use of tobacco is annually ruining the health and imparing the faculties of thousands, and sending hundreds to an untimely grave? Is this nobody's business but those who are thus injured or slain? Does the community suffer no loss when an otherwise good man is thus crippled or destroyed? Are not the rights of the wife and children infringed, when, by this means they are curtailed or deprived of the comforts of life or the means of support? Does not the professor know that many men annually expend large amounts for tobacco, who cannot pay their debts, and that they are thus defrauding their creditors? Is this nobody's business but the one who does it? Does not the professor know that the use of tobacco is a fruitful cause of insanity? An eminent physician once stated to the writer that medical statistics show that more insanity is occasioned by tobacco than by any other cause. Is this nobody's business? Is it not the business of the tax payers how many lunatics shall be unnecessarily thrust upon them for support? Is it a matter of no concern to the family whether the husband, father or son, is a madman? Does not the prof. know that the use of tobacco by the parent affects the nervous system of the child in embryo, and through it the mental caliber and physical health in after life? Is this no infringement on the rights of posterity? Is the pollution of the air of the house, the car, or the street, by tobacco smoke, no infringement upon the rights of those who are offended and sickened by the smell? Is it no infringement on the rights of the gentleman, or lady, who, after paying full price for a railroad ticket, must sit for hours with smarting eyes, aching head, and nauseated stomach, in order that some boor in broadcloth may enjoy a smoke? Is it no infringement on the rights of a lady, who accidentally drops her parse, handkerchief, or glove, that she must be compelled to fish it out of a tobacco puddle?

But, says the professor, men who spit tobacco juice in the presence of ladies, or in improper places, are boors, they might use it genteelly, so as not to offend anybody. Very well: but the liquor apologist can set up the same defence. He may say, men who use liquor improperly are boors, they might use it genteelly so as not to injure or offend anybody. But the fact is, that men will not use either article so as not to offend others. The rights of others are constantly trampled under foot by those who use tobacco, as well as by those who use and sell liquor. Hence, the very argument which demolishes the right to traffic in liquor, likewise demolishes the right to trade in tobacco. The very argument which the professor uses to excuse the use and sale of tobacco, is the very same which the liquor seller uses to excuse his damnable business.

But we must do the professor the justice to say that he disclaimed using or advocating the use of the weed. He merely wished to give his reasons for favoring the suppression of the liquor traffic, while he was opposed to legislation against tobacco. Of the validity of those reasons the reader must judge. It is not for us to dictate to him, the manner in which he shall handle his subjects; but friendly criticism is open to all, and to us it seems unfortunate that the subject of tobacco was brought into the discussion. Had it been entirely omited, his argument would have stood unassailable. But his deplorable concession made a large loop hole, through which the defenders of the liquor traffic may easily escape. They are too sagacious not to see that if tobacco infringes upon nobody's rights, by the same rule, whisky does not, and, therefore, that legislation against the latter, would be as injust as against the former. In their judgment his argument coupled with his concession, will convict, not themselves of crime, but himself of inconsistency. One of the worst features of the case, is, that he will be quoted as high authority, that tobacco injures no one but those who use it.

The right to suppress, by legislation, the sale of either either article, is unquestionable by any fair mode of reasoning. The only question that can arise on the subject, is, would such a measure be expedient? If public sentiment is not sufficiently educated to rigidly enforce such a law, its enactment would be unwise. Any law which cannot be enforced, however just, is unwise, for the reason that transgressors when allowed to violate one statute, soon learn to trample on others until law ceases to be sacred, and anarchy establishes its terrific rule. As an educational man, we hope the professor will give his aid in educating the people of Ohio up to the enactment and enforcement of laws suppressing the use and sale of both tobacco and liqtor, excepting for medicinal and other necessary purposes.

If we have inadvertently misstated any of his positions, we hope to be corrected.

An Ordinance

To fix the price of illuminating gas in the City of Massillon.

Sec. 1. Be it ordained by the city of Massillon, that the following is hereby established as the price of illuminating gas in the city of Massillon, for the period of five years from and after passage of this ordinance, and the acceptance of its conditions by the Massillon Gas Light Company. That is to say: the price to be charged by said Gas Light Company and paid by said city, for such quantity of illuminating gas, as it, the said city, may want with which to light public grounds and public buildings, streets, lanes, alleys, avenues, parks, wharves, landing places and bridges, in said city, shall be two dollars and seventy cents, for each one thousand cubic feet used and consumed by said city. Provided, That the city shall and it hereby undertakes to cause to be put upon its public grounds, and near its public buildings, and on its streets, lanes, alleys, avenues, parks, wharves, landing places, bridges, not less than fifty posts and lamps thereon, within six months from the date that this ordinance shall take effect.

Sec. 2. That the price of illuminating gas, which it shall be lawful for said Massillon Gas Light Company to collect and receive for supplying said illuminating gas to private consumers thereof, resident within said city of Massillon, for the full period of five years from and after the passage of this ordinance, and the written acceptance by said Massillon Gas Light Company of all the conditions and stipulations in this ordinance set forth, shall by said Massillon Gas Light Company have been filed in the office of the Clerk of the city, shall be three dollars for each one thousand cubic feet, and no more. Provided, said private consumers shall pay in addition thereto, to said gas light company, the amount of the United States government tax thereon.

Sec. 3. That so much of the ordinance entitled an "ordinance to Incorporate the Massillon Gas Light Company" as regulates the prices of illuminating gas to the Incorrated village of Massillon and consumers residing therein, be and the same is hereby repealed.

Sec. 4. That this ordinance shall take effect from and after its passage and ten days after its publication.

Passed April 1st. 1871.

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN.

Safe! Profitable! Permanent!

Jay Cooke & Co.,

offer for sale at par and accrued interest the first Mortgage Land Grant Gold Bonds of the Northern Pacific Railroad Co.

Those bonds are secured, First, by a First Mortgage on the railroad itself, its rolling stock, and all equipments; Second, by a First Mortgage on its entire Land Grant, being more than twenty-two thousand acres of land to each mile of the road.

The bonds are free from United States tax; the principal and interest are payable in gold—the principal at the end of thirty years, and the interest semi annually, at the rate of seven and three tenths per cent. per annum.

They are issued in denominations of $100 $500, $1,000, $5,000, and $10,000.

The trustees under the mortgage are Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Co.

These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times before maturity, be receivable at ten per cent. premium (or 1.10) in exchange for the company's lands at their lowest cash price.

In addition to their absolute safety, these bonds yield an income larger, we believe, than any other first class security. Persons holding United States 5-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacifics, increase their yearly income one third, and still have a perfectly reliable investment.

How to Get Them.—Your nearest bank or banker will supply these bonds in any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for these, can do so with any of our agents, who will allow the highest current price for all marketable securities.

Those living in localities remote from banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For further particulars pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the banks or bankers employed to sell this loan.

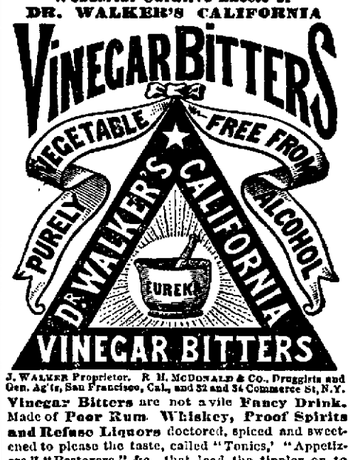
A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to the Wonderful Curative Effects of DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS



J. WALKER Proprietor. R. H. McDONALD & Co., Druggists and Gen. Ag'ts, San Francisco, Cal., and 32 and 34 Commerce St, N.Y.

Vinegar Bitters are not a vile Fancy Drink, Made of Poor Rum Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and A LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erisipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores, cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE, and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

LOCAL MATTERS.

We are informed on what may be deemed reliable authority, that two women of this place have been soliciting the aid of one of our lawyers to protect them from the sufferings inseparable from drunken relatives, by legal means. It is quite time something of this kind were introduced here—we are behind the times in this respect. Grogshops have long enough been growing rich on the miseries of thousands of patient and helpless women, and if it is the provines of law to protect the innocent there are plenty of reasons for invoking its aid.

With a very little effort our citizens, at the solicitation of two or three members of the Good Templars, to the number of some 200 signed a remonstrance to the legislature against modifying or making easier laws against liquor selling. The number might be increased tenfold in this viciniity if the work was carried on with the vigor that its importance demands.

Last Friday was Good Friday, and it and Saturday were good days for our business men, as large numbers of people were in town, and the stores of all classes were well patronized.

Mr. D. D. McDonald has opened out a very neat and well arranged grocery in the opera building, and thus far has enjoyed a successful run of custom.

Rev. W. Hunter presiding elder of the Canton district in the Pittsburgh conference of the M E. church, made his first official visitation here on last Saturday and Sunday and preached several times.

Now all persons who want to see a beautiful variety of carpets in all the many styles will find is to their advantage to call at Ricks' see and their goods.

G. V. Kelley & Co., at their yard on the railroad east of Davenport's shop, will furnish building, paving, and soft brick, also fire brick, tile, paving stone, building stone, &c. Call and get prices before you buy.

For the best quality of white and colored carpet chain at the lowest prices, go to Ricks'.

Our friend, Mr. I. S. Crooks, has taken the room in the Opera building formerly occupied by Ryder & Son, and proposes to supply his customers with daily, weekly and monthly reading of the various classes, such as the people may call for.

A large variety of Mottingham lace curtains, also white and buff hollands for window shades, at Ricks'

The hat store of Dewees & Barber has opened out in the opera building, occupying the room formerly used by H. Williams. Their stock is entirely new, having just been brought from the eastern cities, and as full of variety as to suit the wants of all who are in need of this needed portion of apparel. Of course everybody will call to see them.

Kelley & Peppers will have, in a short time, building, paving and soft brick on hand at the lowest prices.

Taylor & Co., wire weavers, appear to be flourishing in their business, having quite as much as they can attend to. Since establishing themselves near the depot they have been introducing additional machinery, so that they are now prepared to fill the orders of customers with anything in their line, and among their apparatus they have appliances for reducing wire to such fineness as may be needed, by attenuating the coarser article.

REMOVAL.—The queersware store of No. 2, opera house has removed to Welker's block, Main street, where its former customers can find china, glass and queensware of the best quality, cheaper than any other place in the city, as usual. Also, a full and complete stock of groceries and provisions, as cheap as the cheapest, and delivered to any part of the city.

WILLIAMS & CLAYMEN.

About 9 o'clock Sunday evening the auroral or northern lights made a very fine appearance, changing to various hues from a deep red to green and the lighter colors. A storm is not unusual after such phenomena.

Mr. Editor—I hav n't time to write a column of advertisements this morning about what can be done in the grocery business, but will say to our friends and patrons that they will find that to buy groceries and queensware at the very lowest rates, they have to give us a call, they will find it is no humbug. Yours W. E. London.

It is not customary, in this latitude to see fruit trees in blossom on Easter day, as was the case on last Sunday, but that festival came earlier this year than it does some other years, then the spring is ahead, also in various other ways. An Omish man in Wayne county says that the earthquake a few months ago moved us about one hundred and eighty miles, or three degrees further south, and that is his theory of the early spring. Who knows enough to contradict him.

In the election returns published last week, it accidentally happened that Mr. Warren C. Richards vote was set down 529 instead of 629, the correct return.

Hon S. C. Bowman has favored us with an elegantly printed copy of memorial proceedings and speeches, made in the Ohio legislature on the death of Hon G. I. Young.

Late news from France indicates much trouble there. An internal war is waging, severe battles have been fought, many killed—but the government party is conquering the rebels.

Some days ago the directors of the L. S. & T. V. Railroad met at Cleveland and perfected an organization by electing the following officers: W. S. Streator, president; Thos. Jones, Jr., secretary; R. R. Merrick, treasurer. But two of the members were absent, which indicates an earnestness which will insure success. A committee to draft bylaws was designated, after which the subject of a preliminary survey was discussed, and other matters pertaining to the proposed project. About $70,000 have been subscribed by the citizens of Cleveland, and the amount is rapidly augmenting. Members from other places along the line gave encouraging accounts of the interest taken in their localities. A corps of engineers will soon be at work, the route surveyed and located, perhaps at an early day, and in all probabilitiy work will commence within sixty or ninety days. As the work is one of vital importance to Massillon, our citizens are evincing a deep interest in the project. South of us the people are equally wide awake.

Notwithstanding very imperfect and brief notice was given there was in attendence an appreciative audience of our people to listen to Prof. Atwater's lecture on an important feature of the temperance question—prohibition. His arguments in favor of destroying the traffic were unanswerable, forcibly presented, and must have carried conviction to the mind of any present who may have had the least doubts on this point. We cannot pretend to give even an outline of what the speaker said as the space forbids. In justice however, to bro. Atwater, and to our community as well, we hope that he may again favor us with another of his convincing arguments on this absorbing theme—for he is deeply in earnest. We say in justice to the speaker that there should have been a crowed house, as his solid reasoning cannot be heard by too many; and in justice to the friends of temperance here, who would gladly exert themselves to fill any hall or church in the place to hear this advocate of prohibition.

In to-days paper it will be seen that A Listener, while according to bro. Atwater earnestness, sincerity and unusual ability in presenting such an array of arguments in favor of prohibition as were listened to so attentively Friday evening, he takes the liberty of criticising what to some of us appeared like an unfortunate concession—tolerating the use of tobacco. We are sure it is not in a carping or fault finding spirit these criticisms are made but the object of the writer, if we understand him is, to utter a word of caution to the speaker, especially on this point, and he hopes the suggestions may be looked upon as the admonitions of a sincere friend of prohibition, and a thorough hater of tobacco.

The election in this and other states on the third inst. have not, as a general rule, been as favorable to the democracy as that of New Hampshire. Connecticut has chosen a republican state legislature, three out of four members of congress, and the contest for governor is so close as to require an official count to see which candidate prevailed. If the people have not, by a majority, selected English (dem) or Jewell (rep) the legislature, which is republican, will settle that question in favor of their candidate. At Cleveland, Buhrer, the whisky making democrat, who has been mayor for two years past, was beaten some 1500 votes by the republican, Pelton, and a large majority of the council are of the same party. The prohibition vote in the same place, which was about 200 last fall, is now 325. At Cincinnatii the democracy was beaten so as to be nowhere at the municipal election. Wooster elected a majority of republican councilmen, so did Canton, though the other officers in both places are mixed up. At Salem two democrats were chosen councilmen—something new for that place, and one township trustee of the same party. Alliance sent the democracy higher than a kite—then they had a new issue there, the question of temperance, and on that the liquorists were beaten by more than 200 majority. No wonder sister Brown crows—she has a perfect right to do so. Taking all together the elections thus far this spring give good tokens of progress in the right direction. True republicanism and temperance are coming to be the prevailing ideas among the people—so let it continue. In these indications those who assume to manage the affairs of the republican party will see the imperative necessity of paying respect to the prohibition movement—if they do not they may look for a day of settlement, and that before many years. The old whig party tried to smash the liberty movement, but was itself smashed—and the democracy tried to kill it with bullets and bullets but proved utterly impotent to the work. Like results will follow similar causes hereafter.

FOR CHARITY—$5.

ED. INDEPENDENT.

For many months a few ladies of Massillon organized under the name of The Home Relief Society, have labored and contributed to the relief of the worthy poor of Massillon. They have sought out and relieved those in want, and many poor widows with little ones have received timely aid. Poverty, want, cold and hunger have been relieved. In some instances where the drunkard has spent his limited earnings at the grog seller's, and the beer dealer's counters, depriving the wife and children of all the comforts and most of the necessities of life....these faithful ladies have relieved these lone widows and orphans. The funds of the Society being exhausted, they called upon the citizens of Massillon for aid, and received the generous sum of five dollars. Shame on such generosity. Shame! Shame!!

Some of the Pennsylvania miners have tried to raise a rebellion. Violence has been used by them and a number of persons killed. The governor has ordered out the military to suppress the trouble.

The San Domingo commission have made their report, and represent the country as a paradise. The president recommends no action on annexation at present. He had better indefinitely postpone it—this country don't want the island.

MASSILLON, O. April 10, 1871.

The electors of Union school district, No. 1, of Perry township, met in the primary department at 7½ o'clock, and organized by choosing Hon. George Harsh, president, and F. L. Baldwin, secretary. Mr J. P. Barrick, clerk of the board of directors;, read their report which was upon motion of Mr. James Bayliss, adopted.

On motion of Mr. James Bayless, it was ordered that a tax of five mills on the dollar be levied on the taxable property of the district for school purposes for the ensuing year.

An election of a director to serve in the place of Mr. Warren C. Richards, whose term had expired, being next in order, Messrs. Joseph K. Russell, and Robert H. Folger were nominated, and an election being had, it was found upon a count of the ballots that Mr. Russell received 31 votes and Mr. Folger 22 votes. The president therefore announced Mr. Joseph K. Russell to be the director for three years. The meeting then adjourned.

An Ordinance

Providing for the regulation and government of the city prison of the city of Massillon.

Sec. 1. Be it ordained by the City of Massillon, That the marshal of said city, shall have exclusive and entire control of the city prison, and of all persons therein confined, so far as may be necessary and proper for the enforcing of this ordinance, and the promotion of good order in the government and management thereof, whether the persons that may be confined therein are confined temporarily or under sentence for the violation of any of the ordinances of the city; subject always, however, to the control of the city council, or of any standing or special committee appointed to supervise the government and management thereof.

Sec. 2. And be it further ordained, That it is hereby made the duty of the marshal, his assistant or deputy, as the case may be, to visit said prison daily, and carefully to inspect the same, and in case of a prisoner or prisoners being confined therein, to visit the same as often as may be necessary, in view of the weather, cleanliness, and the exercise of a general and particular care thereof. The said marshal shall keep a book denominated a Register, in which he shall record the names by which all prisoners are sentenced or otherwise confined in said city prison; the age of each person as nearly as can be ascertained, the sex, height, color of eyes and hair, and every other descriptive fact necessary, as nearly as may be, to a complete identity, which record shall also show the name and character of the charge or offence upon which the said prisoner or prisoners shall or may be confined; and for what length of time he, she, or they endured imprisonment. And the said marshal shall also report all of the above facts as they appear of record in the prison register, to the city council at its first stated meetings in the months of January, April, July and October, of each year, together with all money received by him during each quarter as paid fees.

Sec. 3. And be it further ordained that it shall be lawful for the marshal, in all cases where prisoners are confined in said city prison, for a violation of any of the ordinances of said city to tax the sum of one dollar as jail fees in his bill of costs, which sum shall in all cases be paid by the prisoner or prisoners so in said prison confined, as aforesaid; but which sum shall not in any case be taxed to or paid by said city. That he shall charge and collect for the keeping and subsisting of each prisoner on wholesome food fifty cents per day, and in all cases where such compensation can not be collected from prisoners, against whom the same shall have been taxed, the same shall be paid out of the city treasury, in the same manner as other debts against the city are paid.

Sec. 4. And be it further ordained, That on application being made by the proper authorities of the state of Ohio, it shall be lawful for the marshal to grant the use of the city prison for temporary purposes only, to such authorities for the safe keeping of prisoners charged with a violation of any of the criminal laws of the state; for the use of which city prison he shall charge and collect from said state authorities one dollar per day for each person so confined as aforesaid; which sum so by him collected shall be by him paid to the city treasurer, who shall give to said marshal duplicate receipts therefor, one of which receipts he shall forthwith deposit with the city clerk, who shall charge said treasurer with the amount thereof.

Sec. 5. And be it further ordained That it shall be the duty of the marshal to report to the mayor all persons arrested on view and by him confined in the city prison, and no person thus arrested by said marshal, or any assistant marshal or deputy, shall be kept in custody any greater length of time than is necessary to bring him, her or them before the proper authority for the hearing of the offense with which he, she or they shall have been arrested; except in cases of persons intoxicated or insane persons and no person arrested by the marshal or any assistant or deputy, shall be discharged by said marshal, assistant or deputy marshal, until the charge upon which such person or persons shall have been fully heard and determined, and said person or persons discharged by the mayor or other proper authority, and by due course of law, and it is hereby made the duty of the mayor or other authority having and taking jurisdiction to enter all cases upon the mayor's docket, and the manner in which the same shall have been finally disposed of.

Sec. 6. And be it further ordained, That in case the marshal, or any assistant or deputy, or any other person in any manner charged with any duty belonging to the city police, or the administering or executing the laws or ordinances of said city, shall undertake to vary, modify or in any respect change, vary or modify any of the sentence or punishment of any person or persons who may be confined in said city prison and under sentence, or shall discharge, or attempt to discharge any person under arrest and imprisoned until the charges upon which arrest and imprisonment shall have been fully heard and determined, and such person or persons shall have been ordered to be discharged by due course of law, any person so offending shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall forfeit and pay a fine of fifty dollars and costs, and stand committed to said city prison until said fine and costs are paid, or said person so offending shall be discharged by due course of law.

Sec. 7. That this ordinance take effect and be in force from and after its passage and ten days, after its publication.

Passed April 1st, 1871.

DIED—March 27th, 1871, in Sugar-Creek township, Stark Co., Ida May, youngest daughter of Wm. and Martha Augustine, aged 9 years and 3 months.

Farewell, dear sister, beloved child!
Thy sufferings of life are o'er,
Thou'rt gone to that celestial home
Where love, and peace, dwell evermore.

Thy pilgrimage of life was short,
And thou dost leave us, now, to weep,
But thine, we know, is a happier lot.
Since thou dost in the churchyard sleep.

It seemeth hard to give thee up,
And yet we know that thou art blest
While we are left to mourn and weep,
We know thy spirit is at rest.

Thy sufferings of life are o'er,
And thou dost rest in heaven above,
And now, thy songs, with angels pour
Where all is peace, and joy and love

Thy playful voice no more we hear,
Yet memory, brings thy form to view,
And Oh! our earthly house is drear,
Since thou hast bid this world adieu.

Thou beautiful and lovely bud,
Too perfect for this world of ours,
Was't snatched from suffering here,
To be transplanted midst heaven and flowers.

No more will we indulge in grief,
No more our hearts to sorrow give,
For death, to thee, was sweet relief.
And now thy soul's where spirits live.

Farewell, dear Ida, no more we'll hear
Thy happy voice, of joy and love,
But may it be our highest aim,
To meet "our Ida" in heaven above.

DR. WHITTLESEY, ERQ.

Dear Sir:—Having stated it verbally to you, I have no hesitation in writing the fact, although not disposed in favor or to recommend patent medicines in general.

I do this more readily in regard to the sick headache cure prepared by Dr. Whittlesey, of Norwalk, Ohio. I have analyzed and tried it, and I recommend it as one of the best dyspepsia cures ever invented, and I feel that in recommending Whittlesey's cure I am doing at act of justice to the compounder of it, and an act of benevolence to those afflicted with dyspepsia and sick headache for which it is recommended.

Yours Respectfully,

FRANCIS RAAS, M. D.

COMPOUND FLUID

Extract Catawba

GRAPE PILLS.

Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubarb and Fluid Extract Catawaba Grape Juice.

For Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Bilious Affections, Sick or Nervous Headache, Costiveness, etc. Purely vegetable containing no Mercury, Minerals or Deleterious drugs.

H

These pills are the most elightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnetia, etc, There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few day's use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmboid's Compound Fluid Extract Catawaba Grape Pills are not sugar coated, from the fact that sugar coated pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect. The Catawaba Grape Pills, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar coated, Price 50 cents per box.

E

Henry T. Helmbold's

Highly Concentrated Compound

Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla

Will radically exterminate from the system scrofula, syphilis, fever sores, ulcers sore eyes sore legs, sore mouth, sore head, bronchitis, skin diseases, salt rheum, cankers, runnings from the ear; white swellings tumors, cancerous affections, nodes, rickets, glanular swellings, night sweats, rash, dyspepsia, and all diseases that have been established in the system for years.

Being prepared expressly for the above complaints, its blood purifying propensities are greater than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla. It gives the complection a clear and healthy color, and restores the patient to a state of health and purity. And is the only reliable remedy for the cure of pains and swellings of the bones, ulcerations of the throat and legs, blotches, pimbles, erysipelas and all scaly eruptions of the skin, and beautifying the complexion. Price $1,50 per bottle.

M

Henry T. Helmbold's

CONCENTRATED

Fluid Extract Buchu,

The Great Diuretic, has cured every case of diabetes in which it has been given. Irritation of the neck of the bladder and inflamation of the kidneys, ulceration of the kidneys and bladder, retention of the urine, gravel, milky discharges, and for enfeebled and delicate constitutions of both sexes, attended with loss of memory, indisposition, weak nerves, trembling, pain in the back, hot hands, dryness of the skin, and a host of other symptoms. Used by persons from the ages of eighteen to twenty-five, and from thirty-five to fifty-five, or in the decline or change of life; after confinement or labor pains; bed wetting in children.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu is Diuretic and blood purifying, and cures diseases arising from dissipation, excess and imprudences in life, impurities of the blood, etc., supersedes copaiby in affections in which it is used, and syphilic affections—in these affections used in connection with Helmbold's rose wash.

Ladies, In many affections peculiar to ladies, the buchu is unequaled by any other remedy—as in chlorosis, irregularity, ulcerated state of the uterus, leucorrhœa or whites sterility, and for all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from indiscretion or dissipation. It is prescribed by physicians and midwives for the enfeebled and delicate constitutions of both sexes, and all ages.

O

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU cures diseases arising from imprudences, habits of dissipation, etc, in all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenidnce, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to urinate, thereby removing obstructions, preventing and curing strictures of the urethra, so frequent in this class of diseases.

Use Helmbold's Extract Buchu ffor all affections and diseases of the urinary organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating and no matter of how long standing. Price $1,50 cents per bottle.

HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH cannot be surpassed as a face wash, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of cutaneous affection. It speedily eradicates pimples, spots, indurations of the cutaneous membrane, etc., dispels redness and incipient inflamation, hives, rash, moth patches, dryness of the scalp or skin, frost bites, and all purposes for which salves and ointments are used. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a syphilitic nature, and as an injection for diseases of the urinary organs, arising from habits of dissipation, used in connection with the extracts Buchu, Sarsaparilla, and Catawaba Grape Pills, in in such diseases as recommended cannot be surpassed. Price $1 per bottle.

D

Full and explicit directions accompanying the medicines. Evidence of the most responsible and reliable character furnished on application, with hundreds of thousands of living witnesses, and upward of 30,000 unsolicited certificates and recommendatory letters, many of which are from the highest sources, including eminent physicians, clergymen, statesmen, etc. The proprietor has never resorted to their publication in the newspaper; he does not do this from the fact that his articles rank as standard preparations, and do not need to be propped up by certificates.

Hoofland's GermanBitters,

Hoofland's German Tonic,

Hoofland's Podophyllin Pill

Hoofland's Greek Oil.

Hoofland's German Bitters,

A Bitters without Alcohol or Spirits of any kind.

Is different from all others. It is composed of the pure juices or vital principle of roots, herbs, and barks, (or as medicinally term'd extracts), the worthless or inert portions of the ingredients not being used. Therefore, in one bottle of this bitters there is contained as much medicinal virtue as will be found in several gallons of ordinary mixtures. The roots &c., used in this bitters are grown in Germany, their vital principles extracted in that country by a scientific chemist and forwarded to the manufactory in this city, where they are compounded and bottled. Containing no spirituous ingredients, this bitters is free from the objections urged against all others; no desire for stimulants can be induced from their use, they cannot make drunkards, and cannot under any circumstances, have any but a beneficial effect.

Was compounded for those not inclined to extreme bitters, and is intended for use in cases where some alcoholic stimulant is required in connection with the tonic properties of the bitters. Each bottle at this office contains one bottle of the bitters, mixed with pure Santa Cruz Rum, and flavored in such a manner that the extreme bitterness of the bitters is overcome, forming a preparation highly agreeable and pleasant to the palate, and containing the medicinal virtues of the bitters. The price of the tonic is $1,50 per bottle, which many persons think too high. They must take into consideration that the stimulant used is guaranteed to be of a pure quality. A poor article could be furnished at a cheaper price, but is it not better to pay a little more and have a good article? A medicinal preparation should contain only the best ingredients, and those who expect to obtain a cheap compound will most certainly be cheated.

They are the greatest known Remedies

For Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, Jaundice, Disease of the Kidneys, Affections of the Skin, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver, or Stomach, or Impurity of the Blood.

Read the following symptoms:

Constipation, flatulence, inward piles, fulness of blood to the head, acidity of the stomach, nausea, heartburn, disgust for food, fullness or weight in the stomach, sour eructations, sinking or fluttering at the pit of the stomach, swimming of the head, hurried or difficult breathing, fluttering at the heart choking or suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, dimness of vision, dots or webs before the sight, dull pain in the head, deficiency of perspiration, yellowness of the skin, and eyes, pain in the side, back, chest, limbs &c., sudden flushes of heat, burning in the flesh, constant imaginings of evil, and great depression of spirits. All these indicate disease of the liver or digestive organs combined with impure blood.

The use of the bitters or tonic will soon cause the above symptoms to disappear, and the patient will become well and healthy.

Dr. Hoofland's Greek Oil,

LIGHTNING CURE FOR ALL KINDS OF PAINS AND ACHES.

APPLIED INTERNALLY.—It will cure kidney complaints, backaches, sick headaches, colic, dysentery, diarrhœa, cholera infantum, cholera morbus, cramps, and pains in the stomach, fever and ague, colds, cough, Asthma, &c.

APPLIED EXTERNALLY.—It will cure all kinds of pains and aches, such as rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, chilblains, sprains bruises, frost bites, headaches, pains in the back and loins, pains in the joints or limbs, stings of insects, ringworms, &c.

Dr Hoofland's Podophyllin

Substitute for Mercury Pill.

TWO PILLS A DOSE.

The most powerful, yet innocent vegetable cathartic known.

It is not necessary to take a handful of these pills to produce the desired effect; two of them act quickly and powerfully, cleansing the liver, stomach and bowels of all impurities. The principal ingredient is Podophyllin, or the alcoholic extract of mandrake which is by many times more powerful, searching, than the mandrake itself. Its peculiar action is upon the liver, carrying it speedily from all obstructions, with all the power of mercury, yet free from the injurious results attached to the use of that mineral.

For all diseases in which the use of a cathartic is indicated, these pills will give entire satisfaction in every case. They never fail,

In cases of liver complaint, dyspepsia, and extreme costiveness, Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters or tonic should be used in connection with the pills. The tonic effects of the bitters or tonic builds up the system. The bitters or tonic purifies the blood, strengthens the nerves, regulates the liver and gives strength, energy, and vigor.

Keep your bowels active with the pills, and tone up the system with bitters or tonic, and no disease can retain its hold, or ever assail you.

These medicines are sold by all druggists and dealers in medicines everywhere.

Recollect that it is Dr. Hoofland's German Remedies, that are so universally used and highly recommended, and do not allow the druggist to induce you to take anything else that he may say is just as good, because he makes a larger profit on it. These remedies will be sent by express to any locality, upon application to the principal office, at the German Medical Store, 631 Arch Street, Pa.

Chas. M. Evans, Prop.

Formerly C. M. Jackson & Co.

These remedies are for sale by druggists, storekeepers, and medicine dealers, everywhere throughout the United States, Canada, So America and the West Indies. 389 1y

DOCTOR OLIN,

THE longest engaged and most successful physician in Chicago, in the treatment of venereal, sexual, and all private diseases all urinary diseases, Syphilitic or Mercurial affections of the Throat, Skin, or bones are treated with unparalleled success.

Spermatorrhœa, Sexual Debility and Impotency, as the result of self-abuse in youth excesses in maturer years, or other causes and producing some of the following effects, viz: Nocturnal emissions, blotches on the face, dizziness, dimness of sight, confusion of ideas, evil forebodings, aversion to society of females, loss of memory, and sexual power, rendering marriage improper and life miserable, are permanently cured. The Doctor's opportunities in hospital and private practice are unsurpassed in Chicago or any other city. Office, parlors, laboratory, and appointments are unrivaled in the west and unsurpassed anywhere.

Age, with experience, can be relied upon and the doctor can refer to many physicians throughout the country. In past success and present position he stands without a competitor. The writings of a physician whose reputation is union wide should be worth reading.

Doctor Olin publishes a Medical Pamphlet relating to Venereal Diseases, and the disastrous and varied consequences of Self Abuse, that will be sent to any address in plain sealed envelope for two stamps, private circular to Ladies one stamp. Many physicians introduce patients to the Doctor after reading his medical pamphlet. Communications confidential. Consultations by letter or at the office, free.

"Still Lives."

Without boasting of being an organ of immense influence, we may with diffidence claim that the paper is not without usefulness in the right direction, ever contending for justice on all the living issues of the day. But its principal business has ever been to subserve the local interests of the community with which it is identified, and so it proposes to continue. Its home record of the ever varying phases of business, of the prosperity of the city, and of the social and moral state of society here, with other matters too numerous to specify, will give those who come after us, and have occasion to examine the files of this paper, a faithful history of the years of its existence.

We solicit the continued patronage of our people in the confidence that we shall render satisfaction—at least as near as as we can come at it—and for such as are removing elsewhere we hope to make the INDEPENDENT a very welcome visitor.

Dr. J. LONG.

Eclectic Physician,

Has located himself at Massillon, O., for the treatment of Female & Chronic Diseases.

Office on Main street, four doors east of the American Hotel.

All consultations and examinations of patients made free of charge.

Dr. Long examines and explains your disease without asking any questions. If he understands your case you know it, and cannot be deceived. If he cannot tell your disease, and how you feel without asking questions he does not consider himself competent to treat your case. This is the criterion to go by, and patients should not be satisfied with any other. This is the only direct and positive evidence of my ability as a scientific physician, and by this standard I am willing to be judged.

A proper diagnosis of local disease, without constitutional symptoms, that is, not affecting the system generally, must depend upon the judgement of both patient and physician.

Give Dr. Long a call, and satisfy yourselves whether he understands your cases sufficiently well to treat them successfully.

Dr. Long may be consulted in the German and English languages. Address letters, of Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal weakness, involuntary seminal losses, impotency, mental and physical incapacity, impediments to marriage, etc.: also, consumption, epilepsy, and fits, induced by self indulgence or sexual extravagance.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice that the alarming consequences of self abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

This lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Continues to treat all private diseases, syphilis in all its forms, gonorrhœa, gleet, stricture, orchitis, and all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; spermatorrhœa or seminal weakness and impotency, resulting from self abuse or other causes, and which produce some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured.

It is self evident that the physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire a greater skill in that speciality than one in general practice.

The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be sent by mail or express.

The doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases that can be had free at office or by mail, in sealed envelope, for two stamps. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.

DR. PIERCE'S ALTERATIVE OR GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

The originator of this wonderful medicine, claims to have discovered and combined in harmony more of Nature's most sovereign medical properties than was ever before combined in one medicine. The evidence of this fact is found in the great variety of most obstinate diseases which it has been found to conquer In the cure of Bronchitis and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and hundreds of the best physicians pronounce it one greatest medical discoveries of the age. By its great and thorough blood purifying properties, it cures all Humors from the worst Scrofula to a common Pimple or Eruption. Mineral Poisons, Syphilitic and Venerial Diseases, and their effects are eradicated and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Fever Sores, in short, all the numerous diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine, nor Liver Complaint, Billious Disorders and Habitual Constipation, it has produced hundreds of perfect and permanent cures where other medicines have failed.

The proprietor offers $1,000 reward for a medicine that will equal it in the cure of all the diseases for which it is recommended. Beware of counterfeits and worthless imitations. See that my private Government Stamp, which is a positive guarantee of Genuineness, is upon the outside wrapper. This medicine is sold by Druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Prepared by R. V. PIERCE, M.
